About Consul Furlong

About Uzbekistan

Location: Central Asia, north of Afghanistan

Size: 172,742 square miles (slightly larger than California)

Population: 28,661,637 (July 2013 est.)

Major Industries: Textiles, food processing, machine building, metallurgy, gold, petroleum, natural gas, chemicals

An ancient cradle between the Amu-Darya and Syr-Darya rivers, Uzbekistan is one of the most historically fascinating countries of the Central Asian Republics. A myriad of the oldest towns in the world can be found scattered along the remains of the once well traveled Silk Road, which holds most of the country's architectural splendors. Many of these remains are a testament to the legacy of the once great King Timor, Uzbekistan's own Genghis Khan.
